

Jimmy R. Jordan

June 15, 1939 - May 8, 2010

Jimmy "Roger" Jordan, 70, dearly loved husband, father, papaw and friend, went to be with the Lord on Saturday, May 8, 2010. One of ten children, Roger was born on June 15, 1939 to the late John and Arie Jordan of Pioneer, Tennessee.

A high school basketball standout, Roger's scholarship hopes were cut short as the result of a tragic car accident. However, he soon met and married the love of his life, Jean Woods of Harriman. They would have celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary this year on August 20th. After their marriage, the couple moved to Michigan where Roger worked as a line supervisor for General Motors. A near fatal heart attack forced his early retirement from GM but brought him home to his beloved Tennessee.

An avid outdoorsman, he loved to walk among the woods or drift along the still waters of the Emory River. He was an accomplished wood-worker, inventor and musician who loved to play the steel guitar and fiddle with friends from the Bradbury Community. His sense of humor was legendary and despite a countless array of health issues, Roger maintained an eternally positive outlook on life and was a source of inspiration for everyone who knew him. Our loss is truly a joyous event for his family and friends now welcoming him to Heaven.

Preceded in death by his parents, four brothers and three sisters, Roger is survived by two remaining sisters, Pauline Hughes of Paint Rock and Margaret Jordan of Oliver Springs. He is also survived by his loving wife, Jean, and two sons David Roger of Knoxville and Jimmy Daniel and his wife, Crystal, of Oak Ridge along with three grandchildren Andrew, Cody and Riley. Roger will be laid to rest 11am Tuesday May 11, 2010 at Anderson Memorial Gardens with the Rev. Steven McDonald officiating. The family will receive friends from 6 until 8pm Monday at the Kyker Funeral Home in Kingston.
