“ Pat,

We were so sorry to hear about the passing of your Mother yesterday. We will be remembering you in our prayers during this difficult time. You have always been such a good friend to us as well as a great brother-in-law. May the Lord be with you and bless you always.

I had some good talks with your Mom when you and Nancy first got married and will never forget the surprised look on your Dad's face when he pulled my hair from the back and I turned around and it wasn't Nancy. That was too funny!

We will be contributing to St. Jude's in her memory-that is such a worthy charity. I am sure some of their research has gone to help the sweet little girl that was in my class that is fighting cancer (successfully, we think).

Love, Kathy and Verdice
