“ Even though Joe was a couple of years behind me at Clarkrange HS, I remember him as a kind and friendly person. I know he will be missed by his family and his church. May fond memories of good times in the past, along with the love and comfort of God, family and friends help you get through this sad time and period of grief.

“ Joe and I worked closely together for several years during our Air Force career. He was one of the finest examples of professionalism , positivity and care. He taught me what a real man was to look like, act like and love his family. His priorities was in line with God's design for mankind. He exhibited love, care and compassion for every individual he encountered. He will be missed but his life will live on in all those he touched through the years. He taught me by example that the measure of a man was not his duration but the donation he makes to the lives of others. I will miss my friend but I will see him again when God calls me home.
