“ Joey was truly a unique individual who was able to brighten the days of everyone with whom he came into contact, friends and strangers alike. He was also a conscientious professional who cheerfully accepted the role of “his brother’s keeper” in keeping an eye out for the well-being of his co-workers. Many lives will be less rich because of his loss.
I especially offer my heartfelt condolences to the Brantley family.

“ I'm very sorry for your loss. Joey was a good friend and I miss working out with him at the gym. I never remember him being in a bad mood, even when I spoke with him after he got sick. I'm thankful for his witness to the fact he knew Heaven would be his next home as Jesus Christ was his savior. He will be missed.
