

John William Henegar, Jr.

September 25, 1950 - February 13, 2008

John William Henegar, Jr., age 57, of Niota, went home to be with the Lord on Wednesday night February 13, 2008, at Woods Memorial Hospital in Etowah. He was preceded in death by his father: John William Henegar, Sr., and his mother: Ada Smith Henegar both of Niota. His grandparents were the late James M. and Lucinda Howard Smith, and William 'Bill' and Callie White Henegar. Survivors include James 'Jim' R. Henegar, of Athens, Charles Lee Henegar, of Southgate, Michigan, and Grace Henegar Bradford, of Falkville, Alabama, special aunt: Anna Smith Johnson, of Niota, and numerous cousins of McMinn and surrounding counties. He graduated from McMinn County High School, and Cleveland State Community College. John was a former employee of Strom Copper Components of Decatur and Seaton Iron and Metal of Athens. John was an avid computer user and expert, and enjoyed helping everyone he knew solve their computer problems. John was a Christian who loved the Lord. He was a member of the Open Door Baptist Church, in Sweetwater where he taught Sunday school. John was an exceptionally fine man and will be missed greatly by all of his family members and friends. The body is Kyker Funeral Home, Sweetwater, where the family will receive friends on Friday night from 6:00P.M. until 8:00P.M. with the service to follow at 8:00P.M. in Kyker's Chapel with Rev. Ted Watson, and Rev. Scott Standridge officiating. Family and friends will meet at 9:45A.M. on Saturday at the Niota Cemetery for a 10:00A.M. interment. Pallbearers will be: Hosuston Anderson, Michael Anderson, Brad Anderson, J.T. Tallent, Travis

Standridge, and Jimmy Reed.
