“ *Ms. Johnson & Family,
So sorry to hear about J.C. I enjoyed knowing him and working with him at K-25 when he was there. I remember the birthday party we attended for him at your home and the fun we had along with J.C.'s surprise when he opened his new watch! Please accept my deepest sympathy and sincerest condolences in the loss of a fine man.*

“ Ms Johnson and girls, I remember Mr. Johnson putting you and the girls on the school bus. I loved you riding the bus to be a teacher. I enjoyed being your neighbor until my farm was stolen from me. I still live in Kingston, but am a long distance trucker. I am in Ft. Worth tonight. I will be remembering you all
