“ Having served as his pastor for over 22 years, I can honestly say that he was a man of deep faith and a loyal commitment to the New Hope Church. His kind and gentle demeanor shown like a diamond in the midst of this troubled world and spoke to a deep and abiding commitment to his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I treasure the memories of he and Reba as well as the entire family.

May God comfort you all during this time of loss and may He fill you with the Blessed Assurance that he now lives eternally with his Savior.

“ I will always remember this kind and gentle man who I only met a few years ago when he and Ms Reba were neighbors in Willow Creek. I had known her for many years. They were a precious couple and loved their daughters and grandchildren! Rest in peace Mr. John.
