“ Tio, till this day I still cant accept the fact that your no longer with us... I remember the first time I met you, even though we always talked over the phone way before we met, and I could never forget that day because it was my first time in New York and you knew how badly I wanted to visit. Days are passing by and not a second have I kept you off my mind, Its like I can still hear your voice, and the jokes we shared and stuff we talked about for hours when me and my family came to visit you when you lived here in Amarillo, there are so many things I still remember, but so much I still wanted to say. But tio you always knew a way to brighten up some ones day, time was cut way too short too soon. Memories of you will always be in my heart, and I will never forget you.
I know this isn't much to say about a memory but, Jorge meant so much to me.
my uncle, my friend

“ I loved my tio with all my heart. He's every part of everyone life. Not one day goes by that I don't think about him. He was a funny funny man :) he lived his life as positive as anyone could. I remember when he loves in amarillo tx with my family. We'd visit when we got the chance. Oh how can anyone forget his yummy cooking?! Haha well. He was great to everyone. We love you uncle Jorge. You are with The Lord now. :) he will make sure you are safe.
