“ It is with great saddness That I have learnt of the death of my countryman and cousin Mr. Joseph Andere Omollo, today April 28,2011. Joseph comes from my village in Kolweny market, West Nyakach location of kisumu County ,Kenya. I first and last met Joe at his residence in Ossing, New York , when I first came to the US in 1992, using the address I was given by his late farther Raphael Omollo back in Kenya in .Joe was very polite,and nice guy with very few words. I kept in touch with Joe on and off since then,calling him and charting as countrymen.My last phone conversation with Joe was during the month of February/March 2010 or there about when he told me that he wanted to visit Kenya,but was treating with cancer.He loved and kept constant contact with his family back in Kenya.Although Joe never went back to his motherlad (Kenya) since he came to the US about 1967 or there about,he gave extensive financial support to his family back in Kenya which saw many of his immediate family get good education through his good will-- he will go down in history for this exemplary financial support to his immediate family. I'm requesting Joe's widow ,Jo Ann Inma Omollo (to whom I send my heart-felt condolence) to contact me on Tel:856-428-2176 or e-mail: pmnicem@yahoo.com so I can go and pay my last respect to Joe at his final resting place.Kenya/US has lost a professional of rare quality --- a graduate form prestiqiuos columbia University and an accomplished seinor employee of Metlife Insurance company both in New York City. May the Lord --- God of Abraham rest Joe's soul in eternal peace.

“ I was saddened to hear that Joe passed away from this life to eternity..I met Mr. Omolo while he was employed at Metlife many years ago. I can recall friendly chats, and several occassions we engaged in conversation about the bible.We talked about Jesus and God's plan of salvation.although Joesph was an educated man, he was fascinated by what I had to say, he asked many questions. He was friendly and vert positive.I am thankful to have met him and will cherish these memories. RIP Joe until we meet again.,
Family,may you find peace that only the Holy Spirit brings, joy in the midst of sorrow and faith while walking through this storm. May the God of all grace strengthen,settle and keep you,
