“ Pop, as I call him, will be missed dearly. He welcomed me into his family with a loving hug and a kiss on the cheek and that is how he has greeted me for the last ten years. Pop, you will be missed.

Mom Peggy,
I love you and pray your strength during this time of sorrow.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Peggy and her family. I have fond memories of Jo and remember the way he served in blessed sacrament endlessly and tirelessly when I was growing up there. He was a fine example to me of what a Christian is supposed to do: serve God and others.

“ Growing up next to THE PALKO FARM I was taught to respect and love all the members of this great family.I was taught how to crochet at a early age by the Mother of all the "Palko BOYS and SISTERS". Loved going to thier house and smelling all the great breads and fresh veggies that she would be preparing for THE BOYS lunch after a morning of working on the farm.(and sometimes I would get to eat with them).I just always thought this family was something out of a fairy tale book and they were my heros. Did not know the sisters as well as the boys but I always remember their kindness and what gentlemen the boys were.. Loved those times and cherish the memories. Sadly to say with the passing of Joe there is only one remaining of these Little Emory Gentlemen. As each one has passed on I still miss seeing them,their smiles and out and about on the farm.Just want to Thank GOD for being the little neighbor girl that was a part of this Great family. RIP Joe. Will miss you.

“ Lord, I continually set before you,
My requests and all my needs
With thanksgiving I come unto you,
My concerns unburdened to thee

*I wait for your intervention, Lord,
In quietness of soul and mind
And worship at your footstool
Leaving my cares behind*

Bless this family today and always

Love you all

“ Our condolences to all the Palko family. We treasure many memories from over the years, especially at the recent weddings in Chicago and New York. It was touching to see Peggy and Joe left on the dance floor as the longest married couple in the bunch at the Feilers' wedding. A great example for all! My favorite memory of long ago was my first visit to the Palko dairy farm where Joe treated me to the best, fresh and foamy glass of milk I ever had before or since. He was a loving, gentle man whom we are blessed to have known.
