

Josephine Elaine (Turechek) Farr

July 24, 1922 - September 5, 2018

Josephine Elaine (Turechek) Farr age 96 of Kingston passed away Wednesday September 5, 2018 as the result of a car accident. Josephine had been a member of the Kingston community for more than 32 years. She was born Josephine Turechek on the plains of Nebraska in 1922 where she grew up on a farm with her parents and 3 brothers. Her family at one time lived in a sod house and she rode a horse to school. She graduated from Chadron High School and attended business college before becoming a secretary in Washington, DC supporting the war effort during WWII. In 1949, she married John Farr from Banks O'Dee, Maryland, who worked for Massman Construction. John and Josephine raised 3 children while moving cross country following the construction work before retiring to Kingston, Tenn. Josephine enjoyed painting, gardening and sewing.

She is survived by:

Sons:

John Farr and wife Sue of Maryland

Richard Farr and wife Janice

Daughter:

Ellen Young and husband Greg

Grandchildren:

Wendy, Rachel, Rebekah, Amy, Ian and Erica

Great Grandchildren:

Kate, Colton, James and Elliot

Funeral 1pm Tuesday September 11, 2018 in the Kyker Chapel. Burial in Kingston Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends from 12 Noon until 1pm Tuesday at the Kyker Funeral Home in Kingston.

“ *I enjoyed visiting with Jo, she always had a smile and such wonderful things to tell me about. We would talk of her and her husbands younger days and found out that they had lived in Ohio as well as my husband and I. Her little doggy was her very best friend and cuddle buddy. I will miss her dearly.
God Bless,
