“ I was very shocked to see my former student's name in the obituary section of today's paper. I taught Josh when he was in 4th grade at Kingston Elem. I remember him as a sweet young man that any teacher would love to have in class. I'm sure his precious spirit will be remembered by many that knew him. I don't know what caused Josh's early exit into the Heavenly Father's arms, but I will pray for his family to be able to bear the loss and trust in the Hope that we all have in Jesus and in the knowledge that Josh is with his King.

I did not know Josh, but my son was in the Marine Corps and that alone says a lot of positives about this young man and his character. Please accept my deepest sympathy and sincerest

“ To the family of Josh Humphreys,
I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34:18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) With deepest sympathy,

“ Robby and Sabrina,
We are sorry for your loss of such a fine young man that Josh was. Robby you and Sabrina did a fine job in raising him. We are stunned that you and Sabrina and family were not given more recognition for your contribution to his life at his service. May God bless you and give you the strength to proceed until you see him again.

“ Our prayers and thoughts are with you. There are no words that I or anyone else can say that will help except the we are so very sorry for your loss.

I walked in similar shoes 22 years ago when my 20 year old son Thomas died at UT. I meet regularly with other parents who have lost children from many causes. The sharing with others who have walked this walk, helps.

I am available to help you with anything. Our prayers, and yours will help sustain you through these first few days.

“ Sometimes God takes a precious life because their work on earth is done. This is the only way I can make sense of loosing someone so precious and so amazing. Melissa, Robbie, Miranda, there are no words to express how terrible I feel for you. The only sense I can make of this is that God had bigger and better plans for Josh! I'm not sure what or how you guys will deal with life without Josh...just know we are all praying for you!! We love you and will be there for you every step of the way!! Everyone of you are so very precious to everyone who knows you!! Josh is with God now, he's not suffering, he's not in pain. He's resting high on that mountain.
God Bless you all!
