

Joyce (Fecke) Billington

March 15, 2022

Joyce (Fecke) Billington, age 70, passed away on March 15, 2022, following a brief illness. Joyce was born in Dayton, Ohio and moved to Kingston, TN in 2004. Joyce is preceded in death by her parents Frank and Jeanne Fecke and sister-in-law Sue Fecke.

Joyce is survived by her loving companion Sonny Hunter, daughters Anna Robinson, Frances (Jason) Rihm, grandchildren Dante, Ayden, Aaliyah, Ava, Cameron, Noah, and great grandson Niko. She is survived by her siblings Sheila (Jeff) Stutrud, Erin (Floyd) Eldridge, Laurie (Phil) Lange, and Shawn Fecke, all from Ohio, and Bob Fecke from Wisconsin. Joyce is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Joyce worked as a dialysis technician most of her life, working many long hours and treated her patients like family. She included patients in family holiday gatherings, who would have otherwise spent the holidays alone. Joyce was a graduate of Roane County Leadership, and was an active member of Continuing Kingston, an organization that thrives to make Kingston a better place. In 2020, Joyce worked as a census worker, reaching out to the homeless people, because she believed every person mattered.

Joyce's family was the most important part of her life and she cherished the time she spent with them. She was loved by all the people who knew her.

A small service will be held on Saturday, April 9, at the Kingston United Methodist Church at 4:00 pm. In lieu of flowers, a donation can be made to the Roane County Animal Shelter. Kyker Funeral Home of Kingston is serving the Fecke Family.

“ My very dear cousin Joyce - (And in my mind I STILL think of you as "Joyce Anne" since we shared such fun times when we were little kids, and that's what you were called way back then.) I remember that funny giggle you had, and it would get me to giggling too.

I never knew a sweeter, gentler, or more loving soul. The very last time we spoke, I vividly remember that you said you loved me.

I will always love you and think of you with so much fondness as well as admiration.

I think I'll be incredulous for a long time that you're gone. We all will. I'm glad at least that you did not have to suffer for a long time. My heart goes out to Sonny and your kids and just everyone at this tremendous loss for our family.

God bless you, and may you rest in peace, dear Joyce.

“ I still can 't believe she is gone. We shared so much love and joy throughout our 50+ years of friendship. She will be greatly missed, but never forgotten. I so loved being a part of her family. My condolences to each of you for your loss.

“Hi my friend as I would always start off my messages to you. I miss you so very much, we've come a long way from where we began we formed a friendship and a bond since 2018. This bond I will hold in my heart always. We shared stories, we supported each other, you inspired me with your wisdom, you gave me great advice that I will take with me regardless of the path I take in life, messages I will value and hold on to forever. You loved your family, you spoke of Anna and especially Dante all the time. You loved me and I loved you, you wanted world peace, you spoke words of encouragement and you showed kindness to all. You knew me so well in our time of friendship, you knew my love for peace, quiet, tranquility and my love of a beautiful sunset. You made your last social media post for me. I am so honored I got to know you and shared with you as you shared with me. I was filled with so many emotions after Anna shared with me of your passing. (Anna I thank you with all my heart for everything) I've been to your page so many times looking at your last post. Knowing you were thinking of me I was in love with it and thanked you for thinking of me and sharing. That's the kind of person you were, always thinking of me and others. I've looked at all of our messages with tears running down my cheeks and a lump in my throat. My heart is so heavy but I thank God I was able to tell you that I loved you one more time. You told me you were tired and we would chat soon, I told you I understand and rest well my friend. We didn't get to chat and that sadden me greatly but I find comfort in knowing you're resting well in heavenly peace and I find peace and comfort in knowing you're with God's angels for that's what you are, an angel. Whenever I see a beautiful sunset I know that's you my angel, watching over me, letting me know you're at peace and you're always with me. Thank you for being my dear sweet friend, I love you always Joyce. This sunset is for you because you are always with me. Love Max ❤️❤️❤️
