“ Joyce was such a kind lady. I never heard her say a harsh word. I met her many years ago when a teenager working alternately for her sweet husband Cecil and her brother in law Dun Harmon. Can you imagine dealing with teenagers and never losing it ? I saw Mr Cecil last week and was so sad for her battle . My prayers are with the family

I met Joyce & Cecil 10 years ago when I started going to Riverside. She made me feel like I had known her a lifetime. She was such a sweet woman & would always want a hug. She is missed so much in the Steadfast Sunday School Class. RIP dear sweet lady!
