“Joyce was sweet and caring. She wanted to keep up with the North side of the family long after my uncle JR's passing. She and my Mother kept in touch on the phone for many years. I would send her photos/notes of my children in Christmas cards. One year I did not include those in my cards. She called me later to check on my Mother and my family. She specifically said she missed those photos so I made sure I included those in the subsequent years! I am so sorry for your loss. She gave a valiant fight. Your family is in my prayers.

Sincerely,
Susan North Lewis

“I will miss Joyce. We've had a lot of conversations on the phone for many years and didn't get to visit with each other as much as we would have liked. She was always so sweet and was a good wife to my Uncle. My prayers are with the family and I'm so sorry for your loss. Loved you, Joyce. Rest In Peace.

“Joyce was a special person. She was our neighbor from the very beginning when we moved up here when I was barely a teenager. She was always the sweetest lady, many times bringing over supper for us and she was a good cook! I shared many memories of my family who are all gone now with her. We have talked and laughed on several occasions over things my Mom and Dad did! She was a very, very dear friend. One of the reasons Becky and I decided to move back to this house was the love we have for our neighbors who have lived on each side of us since I was a teenager. We have always watched out for each other like family. I will always love and miss her. My most sincere condolences to Joyce's family. You have lost someone special.
