“ Ms. Joyce was so sweet to our family , and she always wanted to know how our Cody was doing.....or in her words..."how's your little boy doing?" . Even after Cody was grown into a young man she would always ask that....how sweet...she always found time to smile & ask how we were doing. We saw her a lot of times when she was out to eat...mostly at Gondolier, of course. She was a precious lady and loved by many.

“ Do not stand at her grave and weep,
She is not there – She does not sleep.
She is the thousand winds that blow,
She is the diamond glints in snow,
She is the sunlight on ripened grain,
She is the gentle autumn rain.
As you awake with morning's hush
She is the swift-up-flinging rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
Do not stand at her grave and cry,
She is not there – She did not die.

“ I never had the opportunity to meet Joyce. However, I have known her son for many years and believe that Joyce and her husband reared one of the finest men that I have ever met. G. Joe Pardue is a treasured friend. I trust that family and friends have a wealth of fond, warm memories that will help to console during this time of personal loss. We have to rely on GOD for comfort and assurance in times like these. GOD comforts on every side, and HE will sustain you. GOD richly bless and keep you all. Love you.

“ May all the wonderful memories of Joyce be of comfort to you during this time. We can only imagine the rejoicing in Heaven by those who were waiting for her arrival. I can certainly remember the happiness and love shared with all her siblings and Granny Carrie when they gathered at the house on McCaslin Avenue many years ago. Joyce was such a caring, happy lady. We will keep you in our prayers and hope you are able to find some comfort in the memories of times past.

Love you all,

“ I am very sorry for your loss. Joyce was a very sweet lady. I always remember her smile. I loved our visits together. I will miss receiving her Christmas cards every year. She was so much like Grandmother Carrie. She is now resting in the arms of Jesus. Love to all Marian
