“ Grandmom. Still can't believe I'm writing this. I hope you know much I love and appreciate you. Most of my life's most special memories are because of you. Thank you for being selfless, caring, thoughtful and always the most loving and bossy. I couldn't have dreamt of a more perfect grandmom. I'm so thankful Kendall & Jonathan got to have a relationship with you. I will miss you and think of every single day until we meet again. I can't wait to see you again. I'm so thankful you're whole and healed. Miss and love you. Cait.

My precious friend since forever, I will miss our fun & serious comments via texting. Remembering all of our good times in school. There are so many wonderful words to describe you, but the one word that keeps coming to my thoughts of you is "good " just plain & simple "GOOD"! Missing you and love you. Prayers to all of your family

“ I feel blessed to remember Judy probably before going to kindergarten with Jill. Nothing but sweet and special memories of her. Always so kind and welcoming. One of those porches in Sweetwater you drive by and felt lucky if she happened to be outside to say hello. What a beautiful smile and heart she had. Heaven has welcomed another angel. Too soon for us but everything they deserve with our Heavenly Father.

“ Judy and her family lived up the street from me when we were growing up and several of us in the neighborhood used to visit, walk home from school together, etc. She was always such a great giving person and always had a laugh to share. And she had the most beautiful smile in the world. A light has gone out in this world with her passing. I will always remember her.....
