“ I always tried to stop by and visit Junior when I was traveling by Rockwood on vacation. Its been several years since we last visit. I am planning to come that way in September. I'm sadden to find that Junior has passed. We camped together in Camp Hale, Colorado in 1954 and 1955. He carried half of my tent when we camped in the summer. On June 6th 1954 we had 4 inches of snow on top of our pup tent when we looked outside the tent that morning. In the winter we had a larger tent that held 5 people to sleep. Junior became a very good snow skier during the winter of 1955. The reason I remember that date in June is the day my oldest son was born. I'm sure he has told stories of his Army days in Colorado. I'm 3 weeks older than Junior and still in fair health. Again accept my sympathy.

“ Susan and Mark,
I cannot even begin to tell you how much my heart hurts for you both. God has the ultimate plan. His ways are not our ways. We cannot understand the mind of God but can be comforted in the fact the your Dad, my uncle. is now resting in the arms of the Lord. No more pain or suffering. I am sure that he and mom are having a time together in heaven! I love you guys.
