“ Our paths with Karl crossed through business transactions and we came to know him as a kind, caring and most knowledgeable individual. He never missed an opportunity to share news of his family and was very devoted to his wife, Charlene. A life well lived!

“ I am sorry to read of Karl's passing. He was always a friend to me. I recall well the times he contacted me as County Executive on issues important to the Lab. He was a valued resource for me on ORNL and DOE issues. My condolences to the family. Sen. Ken Yager

“ Uncle Karl was also my godfather. I remember him coming to our house around my Christmas birthday. He was so kind and brought me a gift that made me feel very grown up for a 5-6 year old. It was a white plastic suitcase with a pretty lady on the cover in shades of pink and blue. Inside, the lid had a mirror and elastic straps that held a variety of brushes and combs. I don't know why he chose that particular gift, but the memory of his kindness is still strong 50+ years later. The picture shows me at Christmas with my cousins (Karl's children) Karen, Katherine and Tom. So interesting that at that young age Kath was wearing a nursing uniform;-)
