January 4, 1915 - May 8, 2010

Kathryn Marjorie Crowell Michener, age 95 of Kingston, passed away peacefully at her home surrounded by her family on May 8, 2010. She was born on January 4, 1915, in Walkill, NY to John and Georgiana Crowell. Kay was married for 60 years to her University of Michigan sweetheart, Larry, who preceded her in death in January 2001. Kay and Larry met at a "Victoria" dance in Ann Arbor, Michigan and married in 1940. The Micheners moved to Oak Ridge in 1943 where Larry worked with the Manhattan Project. Kay received her undergraduate degree at St. Petersburg Jr. College, Fla. and Columbia Teacher College, NY. Her masters degree in psychology was from the University of Michigan. Oma, as she was affectionately known by her grandchildren, was blessed with 25 years retirement, during which she and Larry traveled overseas and across the United States by RV. A founding member of the prison ministry, Kay said she felt blessed by the tears and prayers she shared with the men in MorganCounty prison. Kay touched so many lives through her involvement in these organizations. Her legacy of hospitality and civic devotion will live on in the hearts of all who have known her. She will be greatly missed.

Her family will receive friends from 2 until 4p.m.Saturday, May 15, 2010 at Bethel Presbyterian Church in Kingston. Funeral service will follow with Debbie Hyder and Mike Justice officiating. “ Cathy,
Melanie and I both want to extend our heart felt sympathy to you and your family at the loss of your mother. Having loss my mom a little over a year ago, I understand what you're going through. It is a very difficult time, but remember she now rests in the arms of our Lord and is no longer suffering. We go on, but there's no filling the void left behind. She may be gone from here, but her love surely remains in your heart and the hearts of her family. Be at peace knowing she now lives a new life in a better place with no pain and suffering. You and your family remain in our prayers.
