“ Keith was a good friend from high school onward. Played football with him and we were the Left side offensive lineman. He was a mechanical genius of sorts. Could fix just about anything. What a good man. Will always be missed by friends and family ill be missed by everyone who knew him.

“ I went to school with Keith and Hoyt. We played football together. Hung out and we were good friends back in the day. I will always remember Keith's ready smile, good heart and loyalty. My prayers are with all of the family. May the grace, peace and love of Jesus Christ be with you all. Paradise has called another saint home. I offer my most heart felt condolences.
