“ I feel so fortunate to hold so many fond memories of my wonderful grandpa. The year I graduated eighth grade Grandpa took me on a little trip...we called it my "Eighth grade graduation vacation". We went to Little Rock Arkansas and decided there wasn't anything worth interest there, and so we drove up to Silver Dollar City. Grandpa rode a lot of the rides with me and we had so much fun together.
I will always remember my Grandpa for his fisherman's hat, his broad smile, and the funny way he liked to tease. I am so grateful for the love and the fun and wonderful memories he left for me to cherish.
