“ I just now discovered that Kenneth has moved on to glory land.

Kenneth was precious soul. He had a gift that we shared, the gift of gab. I was always ready and interested to hear his wit and charm numerous times as we were acquainted. Kenneth had a child-like heart and Lion-like boldness when the subject waxed spiritual. His sense of humor was only matched by his wisdom and kindness for all. I have a painting that I paid Kenneth to do for me specially and will cherish it in his memory.

Good bye my friend, as my wife Kim likes to share, "Earth hath no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal".

Your memory lives on, see ya' onm the otherside my friend!

“ Kenneth was a wonderful Christian friend whom I will miss. But I know we will meet again. Kenneth was a prayer warrior. If I wanted someone to pray for me, I would ask Kenneth, he took prayer very seriously. He called me the day before he died to tell me he was being admitted to the nursing home.
