“ Ken was a wonderful man. He was a devoted husband, a loving dad, a loyal friend and a devout Christian. He always put his family first and made many sacrifices to ensure that his wife's and children's needs were met. Ken served his Heavenly Father and his fellow man and lived a good life. I have many fond memories of Ken and sweet Eunice. May he Rest In Peace and hope he will say hello to Johnny and the boys. Safe journey Mr. Ken. 🙏🌹 . With much love Clayetta
