“ I remember spending a night in Kingston when we were all just kids. I think Kristi played (twice) every Donnie Osmond and Bobby Sherman song ever recorded on vinyl while enlightening me of all details she knew of their personal lives. She also tried to teach me how to dance The Pony, but I was too clumsy and couldn't make my feet and legs move like hers!

I remember she was the person who introduced me to the tasty snack of a rib of celery stuffed with peanut butter or pimento cheese when I don't think I'd ever seen a celery stalk. I also ran to my mother and exclaimed I'd seen Kristi eating a sandwich in MaMaw's kitchen with nothing on it, just two slices of bread! Turns out, she was eating a sandwich with honey...no wonder she stayed so slim! I learned to like honey sandwiches,, too.

I remember she and I sitting alone on MaMaw's couch @ the watering trough, snickering quietly at the stories the adults were telling because they thought all of us cousins were playing outdoors.

I can recall years later at a family reunion of some sort, the pleasure of spending a couple hours with Kristi catching up on the years while we supervised her kids who were having a blast jumping and splashing in the hotel swimming pool.

Mighty fine memories!

Love to you, Kristi, and sincere condolences to your family during this time~ see you in heaven~

Your cuz, Ray

“ I helped Kristi’s daughter Rebecca when she attended Hollidaysburg Jr High. Kristi opted out of public transportation and brought her to and from school. Rebecca was always so happy to see her Mom and her laugh and smile was contagious, as was Kristi’s. If anyone can tell Rebecca that Mrs. P is thinking of her, it would mean a lot to me. God Bless 🙏

“ My heart is so very heavy with the loss of one my dearest friend. Even though we were miles apart we always seemed to be able to touch base and chat or text about our lives, mostly about our kids and our grandchildren. I will miss her dearly. My thoughts and prayers are with your family and know that I am thinking about all of you during this time.

With love always, Tiv Stottlemyer
