“ LB,

I think of you all the time, and I miss you so much. After my Father died, I think you knew Ruben and I needed a Father figure to get through our sorrow and you stepped up and took his place. Having you to talk to and to be around lessened the pain. But when you passed, I was crushed, I still am. I miss playing with you down at the cabin, your constant teasing and practical jokes, you telling us about our Mother and her family that you grew up with, things we never would have known without you, enabled us to see Mother in a new light. When I go to the cabin, I talk to you, because I feel you there. Save me a seat up in heaven, I'm anxious to see you once again.

Love,

Mark Melton
