

Larry E. Bolden

December 3, 1943 - May 21, 2024

Larry E. Bolden was a faithful man of God. He loved the Lord, his precious family, and all he met on the pathway of life. He was a guiding light to so many, always offering kindness, love and laughter to friends and family. Watching his family grow and learn about the Lord was his greatest joy. His wisdom and guidance will be missed by so many.

Larry E. Bolden was born on December 3, 1943 in Knoxville, Tennessee to Rev. Robert and Maxine Bolden. He served with the 173rd Airborne in Vietnam as a first machine gunner and a paratrooper in 1964-65. On November 11, 1965 he married Retta Patterson. In June of 1967 Larry accepted the call to the ministry, and so began a life of dedication to serving the Lord with his beloved Retta always at his side. His first church as a pastor was Bible Baptist in Harriman, Tn followed by Calvary Baptist in South Pittsburg, Tn from 1969-1971. From 1974-76 he served at Westside Baptist in Rossville, Ga. In 1976 Larry founded Southwest Point Baptist Church and ministered there until his retirement in 2021. Throughout his life the number 307 was always significant to Larry and his family because it was his military ID. On May 21, Larry Bolden entered the gates of Heaven and rejoiced with the Lord at 3:07 pm. What a joyous reunion!

Larry Bolden is preceded in death by his parents, Rev. Bob and Maxine Bolden, his brothers Scotty, David and Mike Bolden, great grandson
