I just now saw this and it saddens me..I went to school with Larry and worked with him at TVA for many years...he was a gentleman and his sense of humor would always give a boost to all of us who worked with him...and those were hard working days...he was a precious friend who always talked of his family with such love and pride...God comfort his family..

“ I could have never asked God for a better man to be my dad, you always taught us how to be better and to love one another. You were always there for me at the highest and lowest parts of my life as not only my father but my friend. You taught me compassion and how to treat others with respect and love. You always worked hard to provide for your family, you sacrificed a lot to make sure we had everything we needed and wanted. Your love, strength, and laughter will be greatly missed but never forgotten. Until we meet again, Love always!
