“ I remember babysitting with sister Shayna And Tasha. A little Larry was a stocky little man with a big smile and love fir the attention. He would do the muscle dance for us and love how we built him up. I wish I could have seen you one last time in adulthood. Fly high and do you work in heaven and my god rest your soul. 🙏🙏

“ Larry was one of my closest friends even tho we didn't stay in touch we always picked up like we never were absent from each other's lives. I never met a sweet caring respectful soul. He always had a smile on his face and had the best heart of any soul I ever had the pleasure of knowing. Larry buddy I sure am gonna miss those run ins with u and always catching up when we did. I love you friend and I hope your resting easy! Watch over us and may we meet again someday in that mansion in the sky!

“ Man, where to start. You were such a genuine soul, with a very big heart. I will never forget all the times you helped me with rides, something to drink etc when even the father of my child left me down n out. You will never be forgotten my dear friend! Praying for comfort for brandy & your family during this difficult time! Rest Easy Brother! ❤️🕊
