

Rev. Loetta Marie Broady

February 29, 2008

Rev. Loetta Marie Broady went to be with her Lord and Savior Friday February 29, 2008 at Brookewood Nursing Center in Decatur. She was born in Monroe County and later moved to Rhea County where she graduated from High School. She graduated from the Life Bible College in Los Angeles, CA. and served as an evangelist in the Kingston area. Later founded the Foursquare Gospel Church in Kingston where she served as their minister until she retired. She loved the people and made many friends throughout Roane County. Preceded in death by her father John Earl Broady, mother Blanche Gentry Broady.

Survivors include an aunt, Mayme Ruth Burris of Riceville, TN; Several cousins and special friends Juanita Guinn and Reba Hunter of Kingston, TN.

Graveside service 4pm Sunday March 2, 2008 at Clarks Grove Cemetery in Maryville with Rev. Archer Coppedge officiating. The family will receive friends from 1:30 until 2:30pm Sunday at the Kyker Funeral Home in Kingston.