“ I was blessed to have met Mrs. Gill on her final journey Home. Even with overwhelming illness, the light of her love was present. Her love of her Lord, her beloved children and grandchildren, her pastor and church family and many friends was evident. I was able to witness this wonderful lady who was so weak but still so strong in her love for all those who visited her while she was at home during her final days. What a powerful witness for the Lord she was to all who entered her home. Thank you Mike and Gina for letting me be a brief part of her life....a life so wonderfully lived.
