“ I am so saddened by L.D.'s passing and by the fact I cannot be there for his Homegoing service to be with all of the Mee family. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you that God will give you His abiding peace now and in the hard days ahead. We will all miss L.D., such a gentle man who I always hoped I'd run into on my visits back to Harriman. I looked forward to seeing him and Bess and visiting with such warm hearted and good friends. My heartfelt sympathy to you, Bess and to each of you Mee siblings and your families. Much love and sympathy, Freida
