

Lonnie Lee White

September 5, 1962 - September 11, 2015

Lonnie Lee White born September 5, 1962, and died September 11, 2015 at 53 years of age. Lonnie was raised in the Baptist Faith and grew up attending Union Chapel Baptist Church in Kingston, TN. Lonnie was a 1981 graduate of Harriman Occupational High School. Lonnie spent several years working at Richards Industries in Kingston and Rockwood, and drove a truck over the road for a couple of years. He also spent time in Indianapolis, IN working at several jobs there as well during the late 1980's and he loved following UT Football and Basketball. Lonnie had his share of problems with addictions and his health, but he was loved and supported by his family and friends to the end. Lonnie did have some troubles that he was serving time in prison for, and was paying his debt to society. Lonnie died in his sleep, alone in his cell at West Tennessee State Penitentiary some time during the night of 9/11/15.

Lonnie was preceded in death by his:

Father – Carl Carter White

Mother – Johnnie Miller White Kerns

Step Father – Damon Carroll Kerns

Maternal Grandparents – James Fred Miller and Willie Branson Miller

Paternal Grandparents – Emuel R. White and Edith Hackworth White

Aunt – Barbara Jordan Miller

First Cousins – Leslie Ann Miller and David Allan Miller

Lonnie is survived by his:

Brother / Sister in law – Jim White and Laura White (Kingston, TN)

Nephew – James Allan White (Kingston, TN)

Niece / Husband – Mary Ellen White Hinton and Michael Hinton (Soso, MS)

Great Nephew – Gatlin Hollis Hinton (Soso, MS)

Uncle / Aunt – Otis Lee Miller and Barbara Demarcus Miller (Ocean Springs, MS)

Uncle / Aunt – Lonnie Brownlow Miller and Carolyn Miller (Foley, AL)

First Cousin – Dan Miller (Panama City Beach, FL)

Special Friend – Debbie Combs Davidson (Indianapolis, IN)

A private graveside service was held. If you feel moved to make a memorial donation, please donate in the memory of Lonnie Lee White to The Saint Jude Childrens Research Hospital in Memphis, TN. Kyker Funeral Home of Kingston in charge of arrangements.