“ Harrison and Moore Family's
May God continue to give you strength as you mourn the loss of your love one, Butter. She will be missed by many people. One thing to remember is to be absence from the body is to be present with the Lord. Remember God will not put any more sorrow in your heart that you cannot bear. We will continue to pray for the family.

“ Brother James, Man I hate to hear that Buttermilk had passed. I know this is a hard time for you and your family. Just know I am keeping you all in my prayers. Remember the good times you all had together, they will see you through the hard times. I keep thinking about her playing ball with the whole family in the summer. Always a smile on her face. Those are things that will see you through.
Love you all!

“ Kingston won't be the same without Butter. I've known her and much of your family since we were all little. Lily and Mariah especially, and Teresa and James. It is hard to see changes like this. I just want you to know I really care and I'm thinking of you all.
Love,
Patsy

“ We were sorry to hear about the passing of Lorraine. We know that our heavenly father is sovereign (in control) of all things. Life proves to be too short for us all; the most important way of preparing for death, is to accept the Lord Jesus as one's personal saviour, where upon passing you will live with Him forever. You are in our thought & prayers.
