

Louise Bollinger

August 31, 1929 - August 31, 2012

Louise Bollinger, 83, of Kingston, was born on March 27, 1929 and the Lord sent his Angels to carry her home on August 31st to Heaven, where there is no more pain, suffering, or sorrow. For us she was taken before her time. We felt like she had more testimonies to tell, but the Lord needed her more. She was preceded in death by her husband of 33 years, Thurman Bollinger. She was a member of Grace Community Church of Kingston. She enjoyed baking cookies for the children every Sunday morning at her church. She was a respected woman of the community and has frequently held bake sells to help others in need in the community, as well as helping with church missions. She was never afraid to speak about her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She worked at K-25 and was well liked by everyone she had contact with. She retired in the late 80's but continued to stay busy cleaning businesses and homes, and of course continued baking and cooking several times a week. She walked about a mile every day on her property. She sometimes would drive her "older friends" to the Doctor. Because she stayed so active and was blessed with good health she never acted her age. She never met a stranger and never ran out of words to say.

Survivors include her son, Ron Nelson (Angela) Kingston; four grandchildren, Sarah McGill (Billy) Knoxville, Ashley Paulk, Knoxville, Gabe Lay, Kingston, Kayla Lay, Kingston; four great grandchildren; three brothers and one sister in the Nashville area; many very dear friends, including Bobbie Long, Connie

Clower and Tammie Stephenson. She is and will always be missed by all friends and family. We would like to thank all of her friends for their kindness, support and being such a blessing to her. I LOVE YOU MOM!

The family will receive friends from 6 - 8 pm Wednesday, Sept. 5, in Kyker Funeral Home, Kingston, with the service to follow at 8 pm in Kyker's chapel, with Pastor Paul Lloyd officiating. Burial will be at 11:00 am Thursday, Sept. 6, at Kingston Memorial Gardens, Kingston.

“ *I will never forget Mrs. Louise. She was a very special lady. When we first came to Kingston she came to visit me and said she would love to have prayer with me and wanted to know if there was anything she could do for me or my family. As we stood in the middle of our showroom she held my hands and prayed one of the prettiest prayers, just like God was there in person. I will always treasure that visit and the friendship formed that very day. Our prayers are with you all during your loss. Kingston lost a wonderful person while Heaven became more beautiful. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your husband at this time of sorrow. I know that you will be comforted with fond memories of your mother in law. I didn't know her but sounds like she was a pretty remarkable woman. I know she will be missed.

“ I can't even begin to describe how much I am going to miss you. Looking back on my childhood I have so many wonderful memories and they most definitely include you. You loved me unconditionally and for that I will be forever grateful. Thank you for all the things that you taught me whether it was about sewing, baking, the Lord or how to just be a good person. I know that you are in Heaven because you spent your entire life earning to get there so I grieve not for you but for me. I grieve for my father who has lost his mother. I always thought of you two as sort of a team because no matter what journey's life took you both through you still had one another. There is no match for a mother's love for her son and you weren't afraid to tell anyone who would listen what a wonderful son he was to you. Thank you for raising such an outstanding man who I know will always carry you in his heart and let you shine through him. You are dearly missed and you no doubtedly left your beautiful mark on this earth. I love you, Granny. Love, Ashley
