“ All my sympathy is for her children. I can't feel sympathy for Lucy as she is in her long awaited home. She has longed for the day she would be reunited with James. Rest in peace Lucy you will be missed. Your almost sister, Sue

“ Lucille was a few years older than I am, but we grew up on the same street in South Harriman. I visited in their home many, many times and loved the whole family. Lucille was always happy and had a smile on her face. I did not see Lucille after she married but I kept up with her through her sisters with whom I was friends. My heartfelt sympathy for her whole family. May God surround you with his love and give you comfort.
