

Lucille Smith

January 7, 1922 - November 2, 2010

Lucille Smith, age 88, passed peacefully at Loudon Health Care facility in Loudon, Tennessee, at 9:00 a.m., on Tuesday, November 2, 2010.

Born to Floyd and Addie Smith on January 7, 1922 in Sweetwater, Tennessee where she spent most of her adult life. Preceding her in death are her parents; her sister, Mrs. Frankie Prince; her brothers, Clyde Smith, James Smith, Mills Smith, and Hubert Smith.

She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education from Tuskegee, Alabama and her Masters in Education from the University of Tennessee in Knoxville. Ms Smith also earned her Theology Credentials from a Seminary in Knoxville. She earned recognition through her involvement with her church, city government, and community as she fought for social justices.

Survivors include: Sister Mrs. Sue Kelso of Sweetwater; Nieces & Nephews: Mr. & Mrs. David & Karen Kelso & their daughters, great nieces, Erica McDonald and Brandy Kelso of Sweetwater; Mr. & Mrs. William & Jean Shelton and Ms. Deborah Kelso of New Jersey; Mr. & Mrs. Clyde and Vivian Prince & Josephine Smith of Detroit, Michigan; Sister-in-law Mrs. Geneva Smith and sons Wilbur, Gene, Donnie & Clarence of Sweetwater and a host of great nieces and nephews she held close to her heart.

Friends she loved and relied on are Ms. Dorothy Upton, Ms. Pat King, Mrs. Gladys Wells, and Mr. Douglas Mc Cowan.

Services are being held at Kyker Funeral Home on Wednesday, November 10, 2010, receiving friends from 1-2, service from 2 - 3, & graveside service immediately following @ Memorial Gardens in Sweetwater.