“ Lucretia (Sam) I was blessed with an amazing employee that I watched grow from a insecure employee to an amazing employee that eventually and n a short time promoted to an outstanding Store Manager. We became best friends during the years, we were there for each other, enjoyed our long talks, walks, weekend getaways, and so many first we celebrated together. I thank God for you everyday because he knew exactly what I needed when our paths first crossed, you were the best friend/sister I never had and you will always have a special place in my heart. The day you departed this world you took a piece of my heart with you and now I have a emptiness that no one will ever replace. I LOVE YOU MY BEST FRIEND and I will miss you so much. 💔💔💔😭😭
