“ I just found out about the home going of Miss Lucy. I grew up living next door to her parent's. And attended church with her at Lakeview in my adult years. So I have practically known this sweet sweet lady all my life. I loved her dearly. I hadn't seen Miss Lucy in years until my Mother was in Harriman Care and Rehab for physical therapy last year. I looked up and seen her in a wheel chair and I knew immediately that it was Miss Lucy! Even though I am pretty sure she didn't remember me, she still had that spark in her eyes like I had always remembered. And she smiled at me like she had always done. I held her hand and said Hi Miss Lucy! I am Becky Tedder and she smiled and shook her head. And then she said something to me that she had said to me all my life, she said you're so pretty. I said you are too and you always have been! So maybe she did recognize me a little. I know she is on the streets of glory and she is celebrating! This lady was loved by many and heaven just got a little sweeter with her there. I am praying for her family for I know this was a great loss to them.

“ I MEET AND LEARNED TO LOVE MISS LUCY WHILE MY MOTHER AND MISS LUCY WERE IN THE NURSING HOME THERE IN HARRIMAN. I ALSO MADE FRIENDS WITH HER HUSBAND AND HER LOVING DAUGHTER BECKY. BECKY AND I HAVE HAD SOME LONG TALKS ABOUT OUR PARENTS AS THEY QUICKLY BECAME FRIENDS. NOW THEY CAN ALL REJOICE IN HEAVEN TOGETHER. WHAT I REMEMBER ABOUT MISS LUCY, "SHE WAS ALWAYS TRYING TO TAKE CARE OF EVERY ONE ELSE NO MATTER HOW BAD SHE MAY HAVE FELT". SHE WILL BE MISSED. LOVE ALWAYS LINDA HARRIS.
