“ Growing up as a Navy Brat, my address changed every two years. But the one home I could count on to remain constant, my summer home away from wherever my home was at the time, was my Aunt Mae's house. It, and she and my Uncle Howard, Tikey, Larry, and Mikey, were always there, and I couldn't wait to get back there. Even though I had lots of grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins to visit while we were in Harriman, Aunt Mae's was always home base. Even as an adult, when I would visit by myself, Aunt Mae's was home, and she would wait up for me while I made my rounds to visit other kinfolks, and when I got "home" we would have many late night talks. I'll always cherish my time with my Aunt Mae.

“ There are far too many memories with Mae and the whole Galyon family to list. Even with her mother, Mrs. Humphreys, with whom we stayed sometimes as kids. Mae and Howard and Tikey and Larry and Mikey were part of our family, just as the Madens were. As kids we didn't make much distinction - any mom corrected any kid, you were welcome for whatever meal at whatever house, there were great evening times with games like Red Rover and ice-cream-crankings or watermelon-bustings. I remember Mae and Tikey painting the toenails of the two little dogs (somebody and Tippy, I think).

Mae was a loving mother to her children and a loving second mother to the rest of us neighborhood kids. She will be greatly missed by all. Our prayers are with Howard and the kids and grandkids.
