

Mamie Thompson Davis

November 30, 1913 - May 23, 2006

Mamie Thompson Davis was born November 30, 1913 in Jefferson County, GA. to Frank and Mamie Thompson, who already had 3 sons. Around the age of 2 years old her mother passed and her father married Jessie Bell Hobbs. This marriage added to the family 2 sisters and 1 brother making a complete number, seven. Miss Mamie, affectionately called Mamma Mamie by many, has always been hardworking, giving and loving. Her desire to have children of her own was shown to every little boy or girl she came into contact with. Her gifts and talents in homemaking and cooking proved very rewarding and enjoyable, by all whoever had the privilege to eat at her place of employment, visit her home or her church. Miss Mamie served the Lord Jesus Christ by being a daily example of kindness, thankfulness, and unconditional love to her fellow man. She was no respecter of persons and her friends included all God's creatures. The love of her life was her husband, and as a Godly wife should she highly esteemed Mr. Willie even when dementia had appeared. God in his Wisdom blessed them mightily by allowing neither one to suffer the pain of separation. Not even death has parted them. Mamie and Willie entered heaven the same day. We the family are forever grateful and thankful to the wonderful persons who were care givers in her last days. You served so willingly with love, expecting nothing in return. Your kindness and good deed will not go unrewarded. Ms. Earlene Pankey, Ms. Barbara Boatwright, Miss. Denise P. Lurry, Miss. Roz Wilkerson, Ms. Mary Rose Saffel, and Ms. Jacinta Baskins, May God forever bless you. Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God; Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel: Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. II Timothy 1:8-12 Funeral 2:30pm Tuesday May 30, 2006 in the Kyker Chapel with Rev. James L. Guthrie officiating. Burial in Kingston Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends from 1:30 until 2:30pm Tuesday at the Kyker Funeral Home in Kingston.
