“ Peace and comfort for Natalia and Chenaia. Mark was a good father. A good step father to my children as well.. although times weren't always the best for us. There were still many fun, good times, laughs (his James Brown impressions) and fond memories. He was a very smart /knowledgeable man with anything the girls had questions about. To know Mark was to love him. One of a kind. Rest easy.

“ I am so deeply saddened by the loss of Mark. He was the smartest cousin ..okay he was the smartest in the family. I still have people who have crossed his path tell me how brilliant he was. A good man gone way to soon. He is up there with Uncle Randy and Pam having a party (and then the parents come in).
I am praying for strength and comfort. May you always hold the memories close to your heart because that is where he lives. With his hand on your shoulder to give you strength you will find peace.Love Peggy Hammond

“ Mark will be missed. I have many fond memories of Mark... many moons ago. His pet opossum that he kept in his bedroom on an upper closet shelf.... recording at Milky Way Studios with Rick Sadowski...a trip to Arkansas (a dry county where we still managed to find beer (Champagne Velvet)) and driving the back roads....I was pretty jealous of his long hair. I am really sad about his passing... Many blessings to his family!
