“ I remember Mr.Bolton coming into eagle market every morning around 7:30am or a little after 8am to get a cup of coffee and bought me breakfast from Hardee's every Monday I looked forward to eating breakfast with him as he shared his childhood stories and always shared his lottery winnings if he bought tickets from me. His lovely wife Denise was always sweet and both always had smiles on their faces no matter what life threw there way. I will always remember mr Bolton as a kind,gentle soul who made sure no one in his community went hungry or needed something in need he would make sure to get it if they couldn't. I was deeply sadden when I heard of his passing recently. RIP Mr. Bolton! I know your watching everyone and talking to snowball
