“ Ann worked with me at AT&T and we also enjoyed being with her at Ladies' Night Out gatherings. She regaled us all with stories of working as an operator with AT&T when they had to wear gloves and dresses instead of "pant suits". She was an especially supportive friend with the ladies who developed breast cancer, always matter-of-fact and encouraging. She had the most lovely white hair - absolutely gorgeous and always elegantly styled. Ann loved her family so much, telling us about them and how they were doing. She was a great cook - I treasure the hand-written recipe for broccoli casserole she shared with me and plan to serve this specialty during Thanksgiving in her honor. I will always remember Ann with fondness and a smile on my face.

Take care,
Susie Sanders
