“Granny Calloway was the sweetest woman. I will never forget the day I brought Matthew home from the hospital, she was the first one there to hold him. When Matthew fell on the coffee table, she put him on her kitchen counter and took care of him and he never made a sound. He trusted her so much. She would stand in the door of the house and yell "Buck" and he would stop what he was doing and come in for lunch.

What great memories.

“My mother and Mary were friends years ago attending the revivals that came to Roane County. They wore their hair up in 'buns' and when the hair fell down I knew it was about to be "show time". They would run around the church and over the pews happy because the Holy Spirit that reigned in their hearts manifested the anointing into the room through them. I was only 4 or 5 years old at the time but I remember it well. I know that they love the Lord Jesus Christ and were bold with good courage to show the King lived in them! We will see them again! Praise God!!! God Bless You one and all...Philip McLemore
