“ God has called Auntie home to be with her father,mother, husband, brothers and sister. I can see her smiling down on us now, mixing up our names and throwing something at us to get our attention... These memories and others I have when we would come for our extended stays will always live deep inside my heart. Take the comfort in knowing that my prayers are with you Benji, Missy (Pig), Arthur (Shag), & Pappy.... Love ya Rosalyn

“ I really didn't get to know you that well, but you and my mom (Alline) was really close and every time she came to TENN she would say I had a good time with Mary, they would laugh, they would talk and my mom would say she really enjoy herself . Mrs. Mary you might be gone to be with GOD but believe me you will always dwell in the hearts of those who love you. RIH
