“ Dear Juanita, Frank and Mary ,
I cannot say anything here that will begin to help to ease your pain at the lost of your Mother, all that I can offer you is my family’s sincere condolences and prayers.
To me, your Mother was the strongest, bravest, loving, caring and fun to be around person that I have ever known.
Aunt Bill conquered the difficult times in her life that would have crushed a lesser person. I always respected and admired the example that she gave of how we must always push through whatever life brings us. She managed to do that not only with dignity and grace, but in a way that brought everyone around her, a wonderful example of how to deal with life’s adversity.
Your Mother was one of those rare people, that we have the blessing of knowing in life, that forces us to become a better person, because of who she was. She was the type of person that you always looked forward to seeing again because you knew, that when she left, that you were going to feel better because she had been here.
So in the coming times when you are missing your Mother, reflected on the fact that she has only gone to see the people that she was longing to see again and that the day will come when each of you will be able be with her once more and forever.
Sincerely
Randy Cook

“ We enjoyed her wonderful smile and her sense of humor. She will be dearly missed at church. Our prayers and deepest sympathies to Juanita and her family. No doubt that she is in a wonderful place, free from pain and care and we know we have the promise of seeing her again someday where there will be no more sad goodbyes.
