

Mary Jane Lamb

January 5, 1950 - July 3, 2025

Mary Jane Lamb, age 75, passed away peacefully on July 3, 2025. A beloved mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend, Jane lived a life rooted in faith, family, and service to others.

Born on January 5, 1950, to the late Ralph and Elizabeth Jones, Jane grew up in a close-knit family and graduated from Clinton High School in 1968. She went on to earn her degree from Knoxville Business College in 1969. She had a dedicated career with Y-12 Federal Credit Union, where she made lasting friendships and touched many lives through her work.

Jane was a proud and loving mother to Lisa Roberts, and a cherished grandmother to Sarah Roberts and Caitlin Roberts (Sean). Her joy grew even greater with the arrival of her great-granddaughter, Wrenley Kock, who brought light and laughter into her final years.

She is also survived by her sister, Jean Howell; niece Alice Cummings (Keoki); nephews Daniel Russell (Robin), Kevin Riggs (Wendy); and niece Kelly Wilson (David), along with several great-nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ralph and Elizabeth Jones; her sisters Judy Wiggins, Margie Langman, and Pat Jones; and her husband, Albert (Jerry) Lamb.

Jane was a member of Central United Methodist Church in Lenoir City. She found joy in the simple things—spending time with her family, tending to her garden, fishing, camping, and preparing meals for those she loved.

The family would like to extend their deepest gratitude to the nurses and staff at Parkwest Medical Center for their exceptional care, compassion, and support during Jane's final days.

A private family service will be held in accordance with her wishes. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made in Jane's memory to Central United Methodist Church or a charity of your choice. Kyker Funeral Home of Kingston is serving the Lamb Family.
