

Mary Helen Walden

October 3, 2011

Mary Helen (Hicks) Walden, age 78 of Lakewood Village in Kingston, passed away on Monday, Oct. 3, 2011 at RMC in Harriman, in the arms of her loving daughter, Brenda (Suzie), and with her family at her side. Helen was born a fighter, weighing only 2 pounds at birth and she fought valiantly until the end. She was raised in Lenoir city and Oak Ridge, moving to Kingston on May 12, 1951 when she married Edgar T. Walden. Besides being a loving and giving mother, grandmother and great grandmother, she was an avid Tennessee Lady Vols fan. She was a former member and officer of the Kingston OptiMrs Club, working many hours in the concession stands at Cherokee and Sugarman Memorial Fields. She was a former officer and coach with the Kingston Girls Softball Association, where she also served as official scorekeeper and coached the girls softball team, Charlie's Angels. She was the official gatekeeper for many years for the RCHS Baseball team. She remained an avid Kingston Yellow Jacket fan until her death. Helen was member of Mount Harmony Baptist Church. Welcoming her in heaven, with Jesus, was her husband, Edgar T. Walden, parents Herman and Ada Hicks; brothers Clifford and Tommy Hicks; sister Mildred Ricker; dear friend Junior Ward

“ I would like to send thoughts and prayers to Helen's family and friends. I loved having her as a softball coach. Throughout the years, she always stood up for me. Her sass, spunk, and passion for softball was second to none. She helped make the ballfield an exciting place. She will be dearly missed.
