“ Such a sweet and amazing person taken to be with God and I know she is up there singing and watching over everyone. I had not seen Mary in awhile but every now and then throughout my life I had seen her off and on but what I will remember will be singing karaoke with her as a little girl and its a memory I will forever cherish. Mary was always so happy and caring never met a more thoughtful and caring person she was one of the good ones!! You will be forever remembered and carried with us all in some way fly high beautiful woman and Ill be up there one day to sing with you again. Love you Mary!!

“ I hadn't seen Mary much over the years since we lived so far apart. A childhood memory I have is going to visit them and Mary and Mable singing harmony. Being rather shy myself, I was just amazed that two young girls would just sing out loud and strong and it sounded wonderful to me. See you in heaven cousin, and love sent to the family.
